

House Passes Anti-Poll Tax

Bill Approved By 273-116 Majority

Washington, July 26—(AP)—After an angry debate, the House passed an anti-poll tax bill today, 273 to 116.

It would outlaw the poll tax as a requirement for voting in primaries and elections in which federal office-holders are chosen.

The measure, the first item of President Truman's civil rights program to be acted on at this session of congress, now goes to the senate. Opponents are confident it will be pigeonholed or filibustered to death if any move is made to take it up there.

The measure, the first item of President Truman's civil rights program to be acted on at this session of congress, now goes to the senate. Opponents are confident it will be pigeonholed or filibustered to death if any move is made to take it up there.

Four times previously the House passed similar bills, only to see them die in the senate.

Southerners fought the bill bitterly in the House, saying such measures encourage the rise of the Ku Klux Klan. Northerners replied that the poll tax disfranchises large masses of people and enables "narrow, bigoted" men to control some southern states. Opponents argued in vain that if the poll-tax is to be outlawed it should be done by constitutional amendment. They failed, 266 to 123, to send the bill back to committee so a constitutional amendment could be substituted for it.

The bill says the imposition of a poll tax as a voting prerequisite is "an interference" with elections and "an impairment of the Republican form of government."

Not a Condition

Virginia, Arkansas, Texas, Mississippi, Alabama, South Carolina and Tennessee could continue to levy poll taxes as they do now. But under the bill's provisions, they could not make the tax payment a condition of voting for president, vice-president or members of congress.

Rep. Hobbs (D-Ala.) tried to knock out the reference to primary elections and make the poll tax an application only to general elections. His amendment lost by a vote of 87 to 62.

The Klan was injected into the debate by Rep. Sims (D-Sc.), 29-year-old freshman, who challenged claims of proponents that the tax disfranchises millions of potential voters.

South Carolina's poll tax of $1, he said, is not cumulative, applies only to adult males and its payment is not a requirement for voting in primaries which in many southern states are "the real elections."

"The rise of the Ku Klux Klan in the south," Sims said, "is a direct result of President Truman's endorsement of the report of his civil rights committee."

"By his action, the President has done more to destroy liberalism in the south than any single man in America."

"If you are sincere in your desire to enfranchise the Negroes and poor Whites of the south," Sims continued, "I urge you to support legislation which will help those on the bottom rungs of the economic ladder."

"Extend social security, raise the minimum wage, repeal Taft-Hartley, pass a bill providing federal aid to education, continue the fight for the Truman farm plan."

Other opponents of the bill argued that the states alone have the right to determine the qualifications of their voters. They claimed that the proposed law is unconstitutional.

KILLED BY TRAIN

Gary, Ind., July 26—(AP)—Joseph Italian, 29, of Gary, an employee of the Elgin Joliet and Eastern Railroad, was killed while engaged in switching freight cars in the yards here today.

Tallan, a marine corps veteran, was formerly president of the local chapter of the Marine Corps Veterans League.

Bitz Of Lindbergh Case Is In Crooked Numbers Racket

New York, July 26—(AP)—Police who smashed a crooked, $50,000,000-a-year numbers ring today nabbed Irving Bitz, 46, identified as a key figure in the Lindbergh kidnapping case.

Bitz, also identified as a former member of the Lepke murder gang, was seized with five others in a lightning series of arrests that already had netted 11 more allegedly implicated in the three-state swindle syndicate.

District attorney Frank S. Hogan said the ring, master-minded from a sedate house in a fashionable section of Newark, N. J., was about twice the size of the once notorious Dutch Schultz policy racket.

Hogan said the ring's operators cheated their thousands of nickel-routed in a dollar-a-dollar customers by altering Cincinnati, Ohio, clearing house Goldberg, 47, assistant circulation totals on which the daily payoff was manager of Journal-American.

Shanghai Typhoon Kills 29, Hurts 23; 1000's Homeless

Shanghai, July 26—(AP)—Typhoon-lashed Shanghai today was searing streets of silt, mud and wreckage left by the worst storm since 1915. The toll: 29 dead, 23 injured, possibly 200,000 homeless.

The typhoon churned in across the East China sea Sunday, the day after it raked Okinawa. Shanghai was deluged with 3.94 inches of rain in 24 hours. Water up to six feet deep surged through the streets.

A tenement collapsed in the crowded Chepe district, killing at least 14 persons. In downtown Shanghai, a three-story Chinese restaurant and an old hotel caved in. Communist authorities said more than half the huts making up lower residential areas in north side districts were destroyed.

High winds ripped down trees and power lines. Short-circuits started fires in which 10 persons perished. Five were electrocuted by fallen wires.

Despite Shanghai's heavy damage, it was believed the typhoon's greatest havoc was in surrounding agricultural areas. Acres of truck gardens were destroyed or damaged. The lower Yangtze valley rice crop, with 40 days until harvest time, was hard hit.

Minneapolis, July 26—(AP)—Employees of the Northland Greyhound Bus company today rejected a company offer for settlement of the 91 day old bus line strike.

The vote was 1,041 for rejection and 204 for acceptance. Eleven votes of the 1,256 cast were void.

The strike began April 27, idling more than 450 buses on the 10,000-mile system in eight midwest states and in the Province of Manitoba, Canada.

Announcement of the vote was made by officials of the Street, Electric Railway and Motor Coach Employees, AFL.

The strike was called after the union refused an earlier company offer of a 10-cent an hour wage boost for all employees on an hourly basis and for a 35 of a cent per mile increase for drivers.

Under the contract which expired Dec. 31, 1948, drivers got six cents a mile with a $196 monthly guarantee. Mechanics got $152 an hour.

Union Officials Resign Because Of Non-Red Affidavits

Chicago, July 26—(AP)—Six top officers of Local 453, CIO United Auto Workers Union, resigned today after the union voted to compel them to sign non-Communist affidavits.

The local announced the action was taken to enable it to comply with the legal requirements of the Taft-Hartley Law.

There are 5,000 members of the local in the Chicago area.

In a formal statement, issued late today, the local said it will elect new officers Thursday to fill the vacancies.

The officers who resigned are: Hillard Ellis, president; Sven Anderson, vice-president; James Macchack, financial secretary; Mrs. Octavia Hawkins, recording secretary; and trustees Lee Smith and Florence Walton.

Revolt in Ecuador Quelled In Hours

Quito, Ecuador, July 26—(AP)—A revolt against the government of president Galo Plaza Lasso flared and died in a matter of hours here early today.

The government listed only two casualties, a policeman and a police chauffeur wounded by the gunfire of a rebel prisoner as the two were driving him to police headquarters.

Swift counter action repulsed an armed attack on the presidential palace. Troops rounded up Col. Carlos Mancheno, former dictator, and a group of aides as they were trying to induce a tank detachment in the southern part of the city to join the uprising.

More than 70 persons, mostly retired military men, were arrested. President Plaza, former ambassador to the United States was elected to a four-year term in 1948.

There's no relief sighted "within the next few days" for the hot and sticky stretch between the Rockies and the East Coast.

Asks Anti-Trust Law Rule Unions

Detroit, July 26—(AP)—Supreme Court Justice Frank Murphy left no will and only a small amount of personal property, his brother, Detroit recorder's judge George Murphy, said today.

Justice Murphy died a week ago today. He had been mayor of Detroit, governor of Michigan, high commissioner to the Philippines and United States attorney general before joining the high court, where he received a $25,000 salary a year.

Red Defense Says Leaders Gentle, Peace-Loving Men

New York, July 26—(AP)—A Communist trial defense witness today pooh-poohed the idea of revolution, any party aims and pictured native Red leaders as gentle, peace-loving prophets of a socialist era in America.

The witness, Anthony Krichmarek, an Ohio Communist official, contradicted government testimony that Red leaders hoped to see the nation's streets "run red with blood"—blood shed during a revolutionary class struggle.

Earlier, federal judge Harold R. Medina excused negro juror George L. Smith from further duty after a foot ailment crippled him and forced repeated delays in the 28-week-old trial.

From the sidelines Judge Medina called Mrs. Jane Schultz, one of four women alternates. She has listened to all testimony and now becomes a regular juror, entitled to help decide the fate of the 11 top Communists.

The jury now is composed of four men and eight women, including two negroes.

Flier, Despondent Over Wife's Death, Crashes Near Tomb

Stockton, Calif., July 26—(AP)—Riding the wings of death over his wife's grave, a young flier crashed his plane near her tomb, and died.

He was Russell Gilman Higby, Jr., 23, son and partner of a wealthy produce merchant. He had been increasingly despondent since his wife died in childbirth four months ago.

Yesterday he took his father's small plane into the sky.

For an hour Stockton was terrorized. The ship rocketed over the city, sometimes skimming 10 feet above the pavement, then flitting in and out between tall buildings.

"For while, we wondered if we ought to shoot him down," said Sheriff Carlos Sousa.

Hundreds of telephone calls reached the sheriff and police.

Then Higby raced his plane to the cemetery, on the north outskirts of Stockton.

He climbed for altitude and swooped earthward in a poverdie. As he pulled out he barely skimmed over the mausoleum in which lies the body of his young wife.

Again he shot into the air as horrified spectators gasped.

At 2,000 feet, or so, he turned the plane's nose down. The engine roared under full power. The plane crashed through a grove of trees, a few feet from the mausoleum, and then virtually disintegrated as it fell into an adjoining field.

10th Polio Death In State Reported

Olney, Ill., July 26—(AP)—Mary Robert, 5, of Wheeler, Ill., died in Olney sanitarium of infantile paralysis last night.

This is the 10th death from the disease reported in Illinois this year.

Three new cases were reported from Lawrenceville, Ill., all in the same family.

They are Barbara, 12, Bonnie, 6, and Bernice, 2, daughters of the William Allen family. They were taken to St. Mary's hospital in East St. Louis.

BLIND WORKERS STAGE 1-DAY TOKEN STRIKE

Nottingham, Eng., July 26—(AP)—Blind workers staged a one-day token strike today against the Nottingham county council for listing them in the same category as street cleaners.

Sixty strikers, who work at basket weaving and similar trades, marched to City Hall where a committee handed a resolution to the Nottingham town clerk.

The resolution protested a new wage scheme which placed the blind weavers in the lowest municipal grade—street cleaners. It called on the council to rescind the scheme and open new negotiations.

Arnold Believes Labor Monopoly To Be Dangerous

Washington, July 26—(AP)—Thurman Arnold, former "New Deal" trustbuster, today urged Congress to bring labor unions under the federal anti-trust laws.

"It is a very dangerous thing," he said, "to permit unions to monopolize the labor supply without any curbs whatsoever."

Arnold testified as a witness before the Senate Banking Committee, which is investigating the coal industry and the tactics of John L. Lewis' United Mine Workers union.

Senator Robertson (D-Va.) called for the inquiry as an outgrowth of a June 30 decree by Lewis setting a three-day work week for his miners in the coal fields. Robertson yesterday denounced the abbreviated week as "a bold, overt act" to fix prices and hold down production.

Arnold was chief of the Justice Department's Anti-Trust division during the late president Roosevelt's regime and now is in private law practice in Washington. He told the Senate committee that the three-day week was initiated to create a coal scarcity and thus place the miners' union in a favorable position for "the next strike."

Without a change in the present anti-trust laws, Arnold said, it would be easy for unions and management to get together and "fix" very things which the anti-trust laws forbid.

Unions Exempted

He noted that the Supreme Court, in several cases, has virtually exempted unions from the anti-trust laws.

Therefore, he said, it would be a simple matter to fix prices and restrict production—without violating anti-trust laws—by having the union "initiate" such a move and then the employers "give in."

Arnold told the senators that if the coal operators wanted to raise their profits, they could do so by "being acquiescent" to such a scheme.

Major coal operators testified yesterday that Lewis, three-day week had been "imposed" upon them over their objections.

Arnold cited a list of what he termed "illegitimate" activities of labor unions, and he said the matter of unions exploiting their power to fix prices and limit production is "the most dangerous of all."

"Once such a drive gets going," Arnold said, "operators may follow their natural inclinations and when they encounter a demand from a union to increase prices and restrict production, they will do it."

The former government lawyer said that in writing any new labor laws, Congress should define both the legitimate and illegitimate purposes of unions.

In the "illegitimate" field, he said, the legislation should prohibit such things as unions "imposing and maintaining artificial prices or restriction of production" and also the "make-work" or "featherbedding" system.

U.S. Steel Corp. Reports Earnings Falling Slightly

New York, July 26—(AP)—The steel industry's giant—United States Steel Corp.—reported today its second quarter earnings were slightly below those of the first three months of 1949, but still big enough to make the first half year its best since 1929.

For three months ended June 30 the net income was $44,123,595, and for six months $94,052,265. In the first half of 1929 the total was $96,011,290.

Against these favorable results, Chairman Irving S. Olds said shipments have fallen off to 70.3 per cent of finished steel capacity in the first 20 days of July—and that new orders are continuing to decline.

"Big Steel's" backlog of orders had dwindled by around 25 per cent, Olds said, adding the decline was "pretty general" in all products except for continued high demands from the automobile industry.

'Mild Epidemic' Of Polio In N.Y.

New York, July 26—(AP)—The City Health Commissioner said today there is "a mild epidemic" of infantile paralysis in New York, with 220 cases reported since July 1.

Dr. Harry S. Mustard said the Department of Health and Department of Hospitals are cooperating in the situation.

The heaviest incidence of polio is in Brooklyn and Queens, with Manhattan, the Bronx and Staten Island less affected, he said.

In a severe epidemic here in 1916 there were 3,457 cases in July. In the epidemic of 1931 there were 620 cases reported in July.

Senators Agree Cut ERP Spending By $419,820,000

Washington, July 26—(AP)—Democratic senate leaders agreed today to slash $419,820,000 off the funds asked by President Truman for the Marshall plan's second year.

They fought other changes which they claimed would "cripple" the European recovery program, however, and won 41 to 37 in their first senate test on this issue.

The vote came on a proposal of the senate appropriations committee to cut $74,000,000 off the pending appropriation for the economic cooperation administration, in addition to the general 10 per cent slash to which the Democratic leaders agreed.

Paul Hoffman, the ECA administrator, had allocated the $74,000,000 amount during the final quarter of the year which ended July 1.

Senator McKellar (D-Tenn.), chairman of the appropriations committee, told the senate Hoffman had no legal right to allocate this amount. He said congress was not morally obligated to vote the sum just because Hoffman had made his plans. McKellar also predicted that, if the fund were granted, it would set a precedent which would "return to plague the senate" in later years.

Steel Fact-Finders Try To Determine How To Proceed

New York, July 26—(AP)—Presidential fact-finders in the steel industry dispute ran into a series of sharp arguments between big steel and the CIO United Steelworkers today as they tried to determine how their proceedings would be conducted.

The three-man board headed by Prof. Carroll R. Daugherty held a preliminary session to try to work out procedures before presentation of evidence begins Thursday.

Spokesmen for the United States Steel Corp. immediately raised the question that the board should first hear arguments and make a determination on the "bargainability of pensions" for steelworkers.

The dispute between the union and the nation's steel companies comes under a re-opening clause in a two-year contract expiring next year. The companies maintain that pensions are not a proper subject for negotiations under the reopening clause.

The point raised by U.S. Steel brought a sharp protest from Philip Murray, the union president.

British Laborites Pass Socializing Of Steel In House

London, July 26—(AP)—Britain's Labor government chipped away steadily in the House of Commons today at conservative efforts to block nationalization of the iron and steel industry.

Ignoring a heat wave, government leaders drove the House through a record all-night session of 21 hours and 48 minutes, ended just before noon.

By then the big labor majority had beaten down 16 of some 60 amendments tacked on the government's bill by the largely conservative House of Lords.

The key amendment would have postponed nationalization until after elections for a new House of Commons, due about a year from now. It was beaten by 285 to 137 on the last vote before adjournment.

Senator Almost Goes Onto Floor To Vote Tieless

Washington, July 26—(AP)—Senator Withers (D-Ky.) nearly tied into a senate vote without a necktie today.

The Kentuckian slipped away to his home for an early dinner while the Senate still was debating the European recovery bill.

He had just removed his tie and was making himself comfortable when a call came from the Senate that a vote on an important amendment was imminent.

In his haste to get back to the chamber, Withers forgot to put his tie back on. He didn't miss it until he was about to go on the floor.

A senate aide quickly shed his tie, a flash number. Withers knotted it in the corridor without benefit of mirror and hurried into the chamber.

"First time I ever did that," he muttered sheepishly.

25 KILLED IN ARMY MUNITIONS EXPLOSION

Tarazon, Spain, July 26—(AP)—Twenty-five men, women and children were killed early today in an explosion at an army ammunition dump here. More than 50 others were seriously injured.

Tarazon, a town of 6,000 inhabitants, is 50 miles southeast of Madrid. Many of its houses were demolished by the blast.

FINED $10,000 FOR EVADING INCOME TAX

Springfield, Ill., July 26—(AP)—Federal Judge Charles Briggie today imposed a $10,000 fine for income tax evasion on Floyd F. Yakey, 56 year old Stevedorson farmer.

Yakey was given 30 days to pay the fine. He paid $40,000 in back taxes and $10,000 in interest for the years 1943-45 after pleading guilty to filing false income tax returns those years.

Two New England Governors Warn Of Jobless Crisis

Boston, July 26—(AP)—Two New England governors warned today that unemployment in their states is critical despite Commerce Secretary Charles Sawyer's assurance that the region's economy is "fundamentally sound."

Govs. Paul A. Dever of Massachusetts and Chester Bowles of Connecticut told Sawyer that one out of every eight workers in their states is out of a job.

Dever tagged the situation "most critical," predicted there might be another 92,000 jobless in his state by Sept. 30 and asked for $36,000,000 in federal aid.

Bowles said unless the wages slump in Connecticut is checked it "must eventually have a very serious and paralyzing effect on purchasing power and retail sales, not only regionally but nationally."

Secretary Sawyer is starting a survey of the nation's business conditions as a forerunner of federal aid to hard-hit areas.

Fourth Negro In Rape Case Shot To Death By Posse

Perry, Fla., July 26—(AP)—Ernest Thomas, identified as the fourth negro in the recent Groveland rape case, was shot and killed by a posse north of here today.

Taylor County Sheriff Bill Towles said Thomas was definitely identified as one of four negroes who raped a 17-year-old housewife July 16 after beating and robbing her husband.

He said the negro, who had been trailed by a large group of officers since Sunday night, was shot when he ran after being found asleep in a dense wooded area.

The Groveland attack on the young white woman resulted in a reign of white mob terrorism in the small Lake county community for several days. Governor Fuller Warren was forced to call out the national guards to preserve order.

The three other negroes charged with the crime are in custody and have been indicted by a special Lake county grand jury. They are held in an undisclosed jail.

Thief Can't Even Ride Stolen Horse

Dallas, Texas, July 26—(AP)—The horse thief couldn't even ride the horse after he stole the animal. J. F. Schuster reported to the Dallas county sheriff's department today.

Schuster, who lives near Dallas, said a thief cut a wire fence and led his horse through a pasture.

Schuster followed tracks in the soft earth.

"It was plain to see," he said, "that the man had tried to mount the horse, but he couldn't even do that."

He found his animal not far away.

Report Red Leaders Order Canton Capture By August

Nanking, July 26—(AP)—The Chinese communist high command has ordered its armies to capture the nationalist provisional capital of Canton before Aug. 15, it was reported authoritatively today.

A general Red offensive in South China is rolling forward despite widespread floods which are hampering the advance. Red forces are driving through the rich rice bowl province of Hunan. Through it runs the mainline railway from Red-held Hankow to Canton.

(Nationalist garrison headquarters in Canton meanwhile proclaimed martial law in the refugee capital, effective Wednesday. The proclamation—along with a strict midnight-to-5 a.m. curfew—came as the government military situation in Hunan admittedly was deteriorating.

Communist leaders are delaying organization of a new national government pending occupation of Canton. A political consultative conference is scheduled to be called into plenary session shortly after the provisional capital falls.

This conference will set up a communist-sponsored "coalition government."

Would Start With Existing Arms Supply

Washington, July 26—(AP)—An "economy size" substitute for President Truman's history making program of military aid to non-communist nations was reported taking shape among Republican supporters of the bi-partisan foreign policy today.

Senators Vandenberg of Michigan and Dules of New York, together with representative Vorlors of Ohio, were reported working on a plan to start the new program of military assistance with $602,000,000 in cash and existing arms originally worth $450,000,000.

The cash outlay they were said to have in mind compares with $1,450,000,000 asked by the president. The amount of existing arms that would be turned over to "free nations" under both the presidential and reported Republican plans would be the same. These are the arms which the state department says are "excess to the mobilization requirements of the United States." Officials say they include no very heavy bombers, big warships or atomic weapons.

Has Told State Department

Senator Vandenberg disclosed to reporters that he has told the state department "the facts of life"—that it can't get congress to approve Mr. Truman's full program in its present form. But he said he will withhold

VETERAN JUDGE WOULD BE AN IDEAL CHOICE FOR SUPREME COURT

When President Truman chooses a successor to the late Justice Frank Murphy of the Supreme Court, he could do worse than to name a judge.

We seem to have departed widely from the old idea that an appeals court should be composed of a group of qualified judges. For some years now, distinguished practicing jurists have been largely ignored in filling high court vacancies.

Of the present eight justices only three had actual training on the bench before their Supreme Court appointments.

Chief Justice Fred Vinson served six years on a federal appeals court. Justice Wiley Rutledge had four years of similar service and a long record of legal scholarship. Justice Hugo Black served 18 months as a police judge.

To be sure, the picture is not quite that dark from the standpoint of general legal training. Justice Felix Frankfurter and William O. Douglas were law school teachers for years. Justices Robert Jackson and Stanley Reed were top government lawyers, the former serving as attorney general and the latter as solicitor general for the United States.

Justice Harold Burton, however, could point only to a regular law practice in Cleveland as his specific legal background.

The Supreme Court is our most august tribunal. It is the last recourse for those seeking fair treatment in the face of laws that may be arbitrary and thus restrictive of freedoms.

It is the referee in disputes arising from the inevitable competition among the 48 states, with their separate laws and problems.

It is a sober check and balance on the other main branches of government, the Congress and the Executive. Can we not fairly ask then that at least a fair proportion of its membership be drawn from the trained judiciary?

The plain truth is that not a single member of the present court was a long practicing jurist of distinction when he ascended the bench.

There is nothing wrong with picking a brilliant lawyer or legal scholar for the court. But neither is there anything wrong with naming a veteran judge for what is, after all, a judge's job.

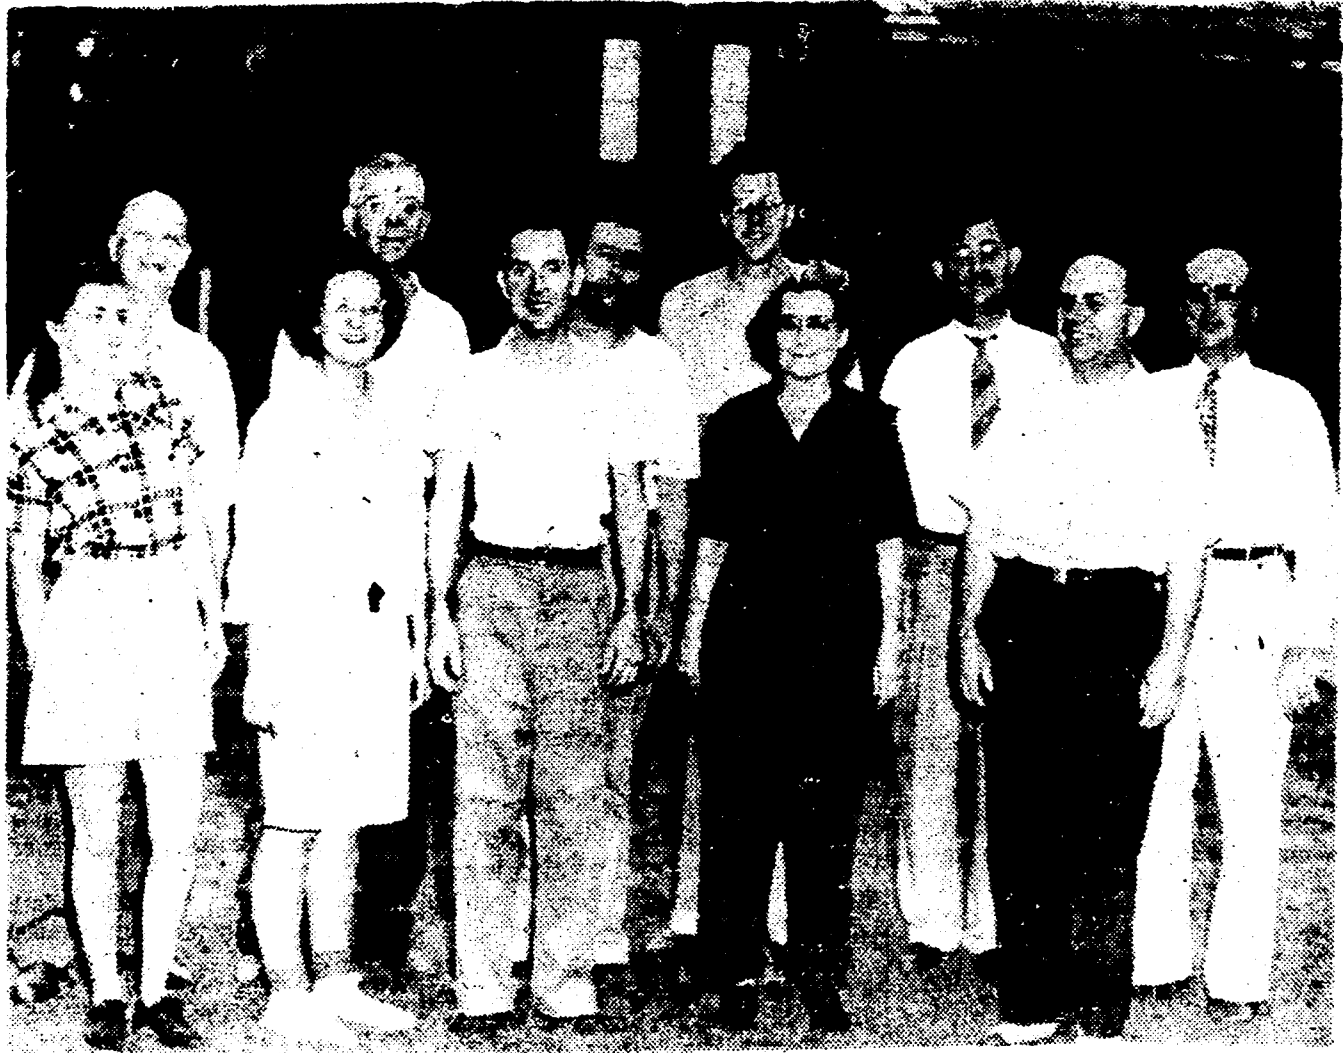

Isn't it strange that we must always be looking to the Senate and the Justice Department and other government administrative agencies for candidates?

Right now the names of Senators McGrath of Rhode Island, McMahon of Connecticut, Myers of Pennsylvania and O'Mahoney of Wyoming loom large in speculation over the new justice. The total judicial experience of these four men is one year.

The naming of any one of them is not likely to help much toward restoring the prestige the Supreme Court has lost in recent years through its shattering internal conflicts, its reversals of its own views and similar signs of weakened judicial quality.

Let's hope the President surprises everyone by choosing a man who has been a judge for more than six years.

Revoke Probation; Sentence Man To Year At Vandalia

Albert O. Winingham of Valley City, Ill., was sentenced to one year at the Vandalia state farm in Morgan county court Monday, where he received a hearing to show cause why his probation should not be revoked.

Sentence was passed by Judge Paul Fenstermaker after evidence was presented by State's Attorney Albert Hall, showing that Winingham cashed several worthless checks after being admitted to probation.

The Valley City man was admitted to probation here Nov. 1, 1948, after pleading guilty to a bad check charge.

Evidence introduced at the hearing Monday showed that the defendant gave a worthless check to Richard Doyle on April 28 of this year, and two checks for $15 to Steele Brothers on that date and April 29.

A hold order will be sent to the Vandalia state farm, to be served on Winingham at the expiration of his sentence, when he will be confronted with one of the checks passed in April.

Want To Crash Society? Buy A Famous Collection Of Jewels

BY HAL BOYLE

New York—(P)—Want to crash high society? One of the quickest ways today is to buy a famous gem or collection of jewels.

Society then will let down its barriers and invite you in just to look at your pretty baubles through lifted lognettes.

As proof of this truism in their trade, jewelers cite the late Mrs. Evelyn Walsh McLean, famous Washington hostess and owner of the Hope diamond.

"There is no doubt that any woman who owned that stone would be made socially in Washington," said Daniel F. Frey, executive director of the Harry Winston jewelry firm which purchased the fabulous gem from the McLean estate.

"When she gave parties, it was her entrance that created more attention than the arrival of noted diplomats, generals, or supreme court justices. In fact, many came to her parties only to see the diamond."

Roegge, became the bride of Theodore Carl Vieweg, son of Mrs. Katherine Vieweg and the late Gottfried Otto Vieweg of Hammond, Ind. Rev. O. J. Klinkermann performed the ceremony.

MR. AND MRS. T. C. VIEWEG

Miss Dorothy Bradish of Ottawa, Ill., was maid of honor. Bridesmaids were Misses Mardell and Juanita Tedeger and Betty Korschmeier, all nieces of the bride.

Otto F. Vieweg was his brother's best man. Ushers were Arthur Vieweg, the bridegroom's brother, Gaylord Schmidt, his brother-in-law, and Walter Juergens.

Nancy Lee Vieweg, niece of the bridegroom, was the flower girl.

The altar was banked with white gladioli, palms and ferns and two candelabra. The front pews were decorated with white ribbons and small bouquets of gladioli.

Organ Prelude Given

A prelude of music was presented by Walter Deffner, organist. The bride party approached the altar to the "March Pontificale." The recessional was the traditional Mendelssohn Wedding March.

Before the ceremony the candles were lighted by Miss Cora Voss of Blue Island and Miss Fannie Rein-ders of this city. Miss Joyce Muehl-hausen, soloist, sang "The Prayer Perfect" before the processional. During the ceremony she sang "O Lord Most Holy" and "O, Perfect Love."

Bridal Gown of White

The bride's gown was of white nylon marquisette fashioned with a fitted bodice and sweeping train, and trimmed with Chantilly lace inserts outlining the round yoke and train, with a ruffle of the same material beginning at the waist with a bustle effect and continuing around the edge of the skirt and train. The long sleeves were pointed over the hands. Her only jewelry was a triple strand of pearls. Her tulle veil misted from a Juliet cap trimmed in French knots forming a blusher and long train. It belonged to Mrs. Gaylord Schmidt, the bridegroom's sister.

The bride carried a cascade bouquet of white asters surrounding a center of gardenias and trailing ivy.

The maid of honor wore a dress of blue eyelet over taffeta with a sweetheart neckline fashioned with a French rolled collar, tight-fitting bodice, and bouffant skirt. The bridesmaids' dresses were similar to that of the maid of honor, but with a scalloped neckline and cap sleeves. Miss Mardell Tedeger also wore blue eyelet. The other two bridesmaids were gowned in yellow eyelet.

Carry Flower Baskets

The attendants wore matching half-hats and short mitts. The maid of honor carried a simulated basket of yellow daisies, and the bridesmaids carried simulated baskets of white daisies.

The flower girl wore a floor length white eyelet dress fashioned with a ruffle at the neckline and hem. Her headress was a matching half-hat. She carried a basket of flower petals.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother-in-law, E. J. Korschmeier of this city.

The bride's mother wore a street-length dress of ecru crepe with black accessories and a peach camellia corsage. The bridegroom's mother's street-length dress was a sheer flowered print. Her accessories were black, and her corsage was composed of lily and pink camellias.

Following the ceremony a reception for 150 guests was held at Main Hall of MacMurray college. Miss Cora Voss was in charge of the reception, assisted by Mrs. Gaylord Schmidt of Chicago, Miss Fannie Rein-ders, and Miss Evelyn Love-kamp of this city.

As the couple left for their wedding trip, the bride wore a forest green summer suit with brown accessories and a gardenia corsage.

Mrs. Vieweg attended MacMurray college and graduated from Valparaiso university, Valparaiso, Ind., where she was affiliated with Delta Chi Epsilon sorority. During the past year she was a teacher of English in the high school at Plainfield, Illinois.

To Live in Indiana

THE YOUTH'S COMPANION

Remember when the Youth's Companion used to thrill the entire family?

It was filled with good reading from cover to cover. You could hardly wait from one week to the next to finish those continued stories! The home lost a real friend when the Youth's Companion went out of circulation. Remember?

Bonnett was accompanied by Frank Trent of Havana and Miss Barbara Scheffer and Miss Alice Ward of Snicarte, Ill. Stanka was alone at the time of the accident.

State police report was to the effect that Bonnett's car was proceeding north and that driven by Stanka was being driven south. The accident occurred at a point where another highway intersects the Federal route.

Charge De Goveia Got Kickbacks On State Contracts

Chicago, July 26—(P)—C. J. (Gene) DeGoveia of Springfield, former director of exhibits in the state division of reports, was reported named in a true bill by the Cook county grand jury today on a charge of violating the officers' act.

The officers' act says state officers may not accept money from companies with which the state has contracts.

The Cook county state's attorney has said he had evidence that De Goveia, who handled Fair and other exhibits in the office which supervised state publicity under ex-Governor Green, received kickbacks from firms which made state exhibits.

Clement Cody, assistant state's attorney, said De Goveia received kickbacks through the Lincoln Advertising Agency of Springfield, which De Goveia operated.

THE DOCTOR SAYS

Bladder Control Comes Slowly To Most Infants

By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.
Written For NEA Service

In small babies the process of emptying the bladder is automatic. As soon as the bladder is stretched to a certain point, the nerves carry the message to the spinal cord and the bladder is automatically emptied.

Rather gradually the sensation of a full bladder begins to be carried up to the brain itself and when this develops it is possible for the child to control wetting. Unless the message is received in the brain, however, it is useless to expect a baby to have control over his bladder functions.

Bladder control comes slowly and parents should not be concerned if their hopeful does not develop complete control as soon as some other child they know about.

May Be A Cause

Sometimes a child wets during the day or night 3 or 4 years old, or even beyond. Usually, this is a sign of either rebellion on the part of the child or a feeling of insecurity. Sometimes such children have had the importance of keeping dry overemphasized to them and take a childish delight in frustrating their parents.

When this is the reason, the parents ought to pay less attention to the whole thing and to show no signs of annoyance or any other emotion when it occurs. This is often enough to solve the problem.

A healthy baby usually begins to establish bowel control between 1 and 2 years old. When the baby is 9 or 10 months old it can be placed for short periods on the "potty." Most infants begin to catch on to the idea quickly, especially if praise is given for good results.

"The 'potty' should be used regularly at the same time of day, usually after the first morning meal. Neither the mother nor the baby should be worn out by keeping it up too long if success is not achieved.

Note: Dr. Jordan is unable to answer individual questions from readers. However, each day he will answer one of the most frequently asked questions in his column.

THE DOCTOR ANSWERS
By EDWIN P. JORDAN, M. D.

Question: Is it harmful for a person with stomach ulcers to drink a quart of buttermilk a day?

Answer: Probably not, but the diet for a person with stomach ulcers should be outlined by his physician.

Are you SURE you slept
well last night?

It is often possible to sleep with apparent soundness without obtaining the full benefit of one's rest. One of the chief causes of this is an uncomfortable mattress. A cotton mattress which is hard, lumpy, or thin in the center, an innerspring mattress with broken coils or insufficient padding, can cause misery and discomfort out of all proportion to the cost of repairing or renovating it. We don't claim to work miracles, but it might surprise you to learn what we can do with your old mattress, at a price but a fraction of that of new bedding. We pick up and deliver anywhere in Jacksonville, and will be glad to examine your mattress without obligation. If it isn't worth repairing, we'll frankly tell you so.

Home Bureau Unit At Glasgow Plans To Hold Picnic

Scattered showers and a few heavy rains are still delaying the wind-up of the local wheat harvest. Although the bulk of the wheat crop here is out of the fields, a few scattered fields remain to be combined.

Corn detasseling is now in its final stage.

The front, final and largest section of the house, moved here from southeast of Manchester the past week, arrived in Glasgow by "low-boy" truck Saturday morning.

The structure, a five-room house, purchased by Mrs. Lena Fundel for her future home here, is now in place on the lot, west of the Christian church. A concrete block foundation is being placed under the building by Joe Migus and Jack Daniels of Alsey, after which it will be lowered into place and made ready for occupancy.

Alicia Hart's Stitch in Time—Sews Up Glamor on Played-Out Summer Duds

Last summer's played-out play duds can be put back in the running by simple re-vamping tricks. This girl's beach shirt owes its pick-me-up to a man's red cotton faille necktie and to a new collar cut out of a matching tie. Her skimpy play dress (upper right) was lengthened and frilled at neckline and hemline (right) with eyelet ruffles.

BY ALICIA HART

NEA Staff Writer

Give last season's play clothes a chance to be saved from discard before you toss them out of your closet.

Use eyelet ruffles to lengthen and glamorize skirts, to put pretty new frills around old necklines. A deep eyelet embroidered petticoat flounce added to a shrunken hemline will add four inches of length and glamor to a cotton print. Stitch narrower matching eyelet to the bare-topped or off-shoulder bodice that teams with the skirt. If the bodice is self-ruffled, put the lace one underneath to glam it up.

The neatest conversion trick of the year is to turn two colorful neckties, filched from husband or dad, and use to brighten the outlook of an old beach shirt or coat.

Select two cravats from the tie rack that match or mix well. One will go to make a new beach-shirt collar or a cover for the one you have as well as matching cuffs. The other one will serve the same function as a manly tie knotted under your collar or worn loose with ends flying.

"Too short" shorts take on a new Tyrolean look (and go longer) when a row of wide primary-colored peasant embroidery is used to outline the bottom and make gay suspenders. For the latter, the embroidered edging need only be run over the shoulder and back and then held taut by a crossbar of edging stitched from suspender to suspender across the chest.

To Hold Funeral For Little Girl Killed In Wreck

The officiating minister will be Rev. William Webber of Farmington and Rev. Alf Anderson of Ashland. Burial will be made in Pleasant Plains cemetery.

The remains have been removed from the Hensley funeral home to the residence.

Mrs. Allen, accompanied by her husband, was driving a truck north on the New Berlin-Pleasant Plains blacktop road. Rev. Mr. Riley was driving east on a county gravel road when the collision occurred.

NOVELIST IS NO REALTY SALESMAN
Denver —(AP)—Novelist William MacLeod Raine does all right turning out western yarns but he admits he's no more than a real estate salesman.
In 1887 Raine's father bought 10 lots in the Cherry Hills section for $400. Since then father and son have paid out $500 in taxes. The other day the author sold them for the same price his father paid. He said no way could be devised within reason to bring water to the land.

VAUGHAN GETS ANOTHER MEDAL—"In recognition of your courage and intrepidity over and beyond the call of duty, I hereby decorate you with the medal Operation Union Station." That's what President Truman reportedly said when he presented this fake medal to his military aide, Maj.-Gen. Harry Vaughan. The "operation" refers to Vaughan's brush with newsmen in Washington's Union Station upon his return from a three-week vacation cruise. (NEA-Acme photo from Newsweek.)

Why: Business Predictions Are Difficult
BY SIGRID ARNE
AP Newsfeature Writer.
Washington—When you read the President's report to Congress on the economic health of the nation, it becomes obvious there is still no way of knowing which way the prosperity flea will hop next.
You probably read the high-points of the report—like no higher taxes right now. But the report is 126 pages long. It lists both the good and the bad in the picture. You can take those lists and become your own business prophet—and you'll probably come out with uncertainty. Here's why.
The Good Side
Food prices began to slide down in early 1948, but no panic developed. Other prices which slid did so slowly. Top business men who buy supplies for six months at a time—like sheet steel to manufacture containers—have cut back such buying, but they didn't do it all at once.
Now the President's advisers think some of that big supply buying will start up again. They found that many factories are still selling their finished products at a faster rate than they are buying the semi-finished products which they need to run their plants. The companies which used high-pressure sales campaigns have sold well.
Although industry did cut back its payrolls this year, it actually put more new money into plant and equipment the first three months of this year than it did the same time last year. The number of new houses started this winter fell off badly, but now they're almost up to last year's volume.
Federal, state and local governments are beginning to build again after the inactivity of the war years. These programs keep workers on jobs and money in their pockets. Great numbers of jobless are getting unemployment compensation, which at least pays the grocery bill.
The agricultural price-support program gives farmers a minimum return for some major crops and prevents their prices from dropping badly. The billions we're spending on foreign aid are keeping great groups of American workers on the job turning out the goods.
The Bad Side
Drops in the business thermometer have occurred in several phases of our life. The worst drop has been in factory production, which fell 13 percent since last autumn. The big drop—10 percent—came between March and June this year.

Private investment fell 25 percent from the last quarter of 1948 to the first quarter of this year—from $43,000,000,000 to $32,000,000,000.
The President's report said most of this occurred in "inventory buying"—that is the buying of supplies for future use, and since there is a chance for such buying to pick up, the private investment figure has a chance of increasing later this year. Private investment in construction dropped much less.
There is enough uncertainty among business men so that the President's report cautions against dropping more people from the pay-rolls just to keep the company profits up. The report advises taking a lower profit right now for the long-run reward of keeping business volume up.
John Doe, who likes to do his own guessing on the future, must balance these two sides of the business picture. The President's report gives no hand and fast answer. It does say "The weight of evidence does not support a gloomy outlook."

CHICAGO LIVESTOCK
MARKET REPORT

Chicago, July 26.—(P)—Live hogs were steady to 50 cents higher today and cattle were unevenly 25 cents higher to as much lower. Bulls, however, were mostly 50 cents to $1 less. Sheep ruled steady to weak.

Good and choice butcher hogs sold from $21.25 to $22.50 and a sparingly-paid top of $22.60. Again heavier weights were scarce. Sows took $13.50 to $19.50 generally, with some higher to $20 and some lower to $12.75. An estimated 1,000 head were held over unsold.

Choice steers topped at $28 and heifers at $27. Good and choice steers generally sold from $25.50 to $27.50 and medium to choice heifers from $22 to $28.75. Good sausage bulls found a practical top of $22 and vealers topped at $26.

Most good and choice lambs sold from $23.50 to $24.50, the general top price, although odd head merited up to $25. Ewes topped at $9.25.

Among the salable receipts for the day were 8,000 hogs—2,000 fewer than expected by the trade; 4,500 cattle—2,500 less than anticipated; 400 calves, and 700 sheep.

GRAIN FUTURES DIP:
WHEAT AND CORN OFF
OVER THREE CENTS

Chicago, July 26.—(P)—Grain futures prices folded up today, with wheat and corn dipping more than 3 cents a bushel at times after yesterday's upturn.

Several factors were responsible for liquidation. These included the government report of heavy grain carryovers, rains in the corn and spring wheat regions, and a letup in the heavy flour buying of the last two previous sessions.

Soybeans hit new seasonal peaks on the December and March contracts right at the start, but then dipped with other grains.

Receipts were: wheat 99 cars, corn 89, oats 117, rye 7, barley 6, soybeans 45.

Wheat closed 12 to 21 cents lower than the previous finish, September $2.03-1/2, corn was down 2 1/2 to 3 cents, September $1.26-1/2, oats were 11 to 14 lower, September 65 1/2, rye was off 4 1/2 to 5 1/2 cents, September $1.51-1/2, soybeans were 1 to 2 1/2 cents lower, November $2.27-2/3, and lard was down 3 to 18 cents a hundred pounds, September $11.47.

PEELED POTATOES IN A PACKAGE—Ed Hughes checks bags of potatoes peeled in Chicago and treated to keep fresh without refrigeration. Clyde Miller, who's developed the idea, hopes to have the skinless spuds in groceries all over the country within the year.

New York Stock
Market

New York, July 26.—(P)—A slowly rising stock market gathered momentum as trading progressed today.

After a fumbling start, buying interests sharpened and leading issues moved up fractions to more than a point. Steels, rails and motors were among the strongest groups.

Trading was brisk off and on but sales figures were distorted—as they were several times last week—by heavy business in Commonwealth & Southern. Turnover was at the rate of around 1,300,000 shares, of which C & S accounted for 300,000 or thereabouts.

Corporate bonds showed few changes of significance.

Columbus, O.—(P)—The driver, police decided, was most unfortunate in his choice of victims in his automobile accident.

First, he crashed into the rear of an attorney's automobile. Then, he sideswiped a city garbage truck. He wound up by crashing against a tree a policeman's car which had been parked at the curb.

Fresh crabmeat makes a delicious warm weather salad. For a pound of the fish use a stalk celery (finely chopped), a green onion (finely chopped), and some strips of green pepper. Mix these well and add mayonnaise that has been flavored with a little finely chopped fresh herbs (such as parsley and chervil). Line a salad bowl with crisp greens and mound the crabmeat mixture in the center. Garnish with slices of sweet pickle, pimiento, olives, or radishes.

Exchange, Rotary Clubs Win Civic League Tussles

Civic League fans witnessed a pair of runaway tilts at the Southside park last night as two of the teams carried hot bats up to the plate and the other two clubs' batsmen couldn't buy a hit.

In the preliminary contest, Clarence Neuner shut the Lion hitters without a run and limited them to nine hits as his Exchange club clubbers strode up to the plate and hit for 13 runs and the ball game in six innings by a 13-0 mark.

The Kiwanis and Rotary clubs made a game of it in the nightcap for five innings. The Rotary aggregation broke loose in the fifth and sixth innings to score nine runs and take the contest by a 12-6 count.

Southpaw Samore was the winning tosser, allowing the Kiwanians only 10 hits. Conrad twirled for the Kiwanis nine.

Hold Truck Driver For Stealing $935 From A Carnival

Kankakee, Ill., July 26—(P)—A carnival truck driver today was held on a charge of grand larceny of $935 from the carnival.

Police said Harvey Tobel, 39, of Chicago, told state's attorney Frank Curran of Kankakee county that he took the money from a carnival at Grant Park, Ill., last weekend.

Police arrested Tobel yesterday after a watchman saw him leaving a tent where the money was kept.

Curran said $352 in cash was found in the seat cushion of a truck after the carnival moved out of the park fairgrounds. Sheriff's deputies also recovered $78 in change buried on the grounds.

Tobel admitted tearing up checks totaling $500, police said.

Frick 'Annoyed' When Cards-Bums Quit In 4-4 Tie

New York, July 26—(P)—The next time two National league clubs set a time limit on a ball game to catch a train, they'd better tell President Frick in advance.

Frick was "annoyed" about yesterday's Brooklyn-St. Louis tie that was called at the end of nine innings and two hours before train time. The clubs neglected to inform Frick about the 2:00 p.m. (CST) deadline.

"I am writing letters to both clubs," Frick said today, "telling them to notify me when they plan any time limit games."

"There are no league rules to govern such a situation except that the game must be started three and a half hours before the train leaves. They did that all right. There is no rule saying when you must stop the game to make your train connection."

"We used to have a league rule on games that were stopped before a decision had been reached. We'd re-start them at the exact point where play was stopped. They called them suspended games. But the clubs didn't like the rule and voted it out of the book."

The game or no, all the figures went into the official records including the paid attendance of 27,058 that boosted the Ebbets field to 1949 total of 1,010,349 for 50 home dates or a little better than 20,000 per.

Paul Stroud will return to Routh next September. He will coach six men football. His basketball prospects look bright with the following lettermen returning for the 1950 season—David Henry, Charles Cobb, Richard Carls, Jim Clancy, Charles Longner, Paul Saner, Bill Kaufman and A. J. Spreen. Coach Stroud has a few open dates in his 1949-50 cage chart. He has several new teams to play his Rockets.

Carroll Lowe, new mentor at Waverly high, is spending the summer as supervisor of the new 4-H camp at West Frankfort. His Pittsfield Sophomore basketball team was undefeated in 1949 and his Waverly prospects are bright with three regulars back from the fine team of Coach Lyle King of 1949.

Roodhouse Community high school will have new lights for all home football games this season. The highlight of the Railroaders chart lists the Pittsfield Sauekes, defending champs in the Ivy loop who play at Roodhouse Oct. 7. The Sauekes won 20-0 over the Railroaders last season in the initial game of the conference season for both clubs.

Coach Eldon Atwood of Chambersburg high and his ace center of 1949, Eddie Jackson, are enrolled at summer school attending at Macomb Western State college. Coach Howard Lester of Carlinville high and former coach at Batavia, Waterloo, Abingdon and Winchester are also attending the summer sessions.

Klein Proves His Worth
Saigh is first to admit his club's good fortune in the return of three former Mexican Leaguers—utility infielder Lou Klein and pitchers Max Lanier and Fred Martin.

Klein has been especially valuable as a fill-in for shortstop Marty Marion, frequently forced to the sidelines because of a recurring back ailment, and for third baseman Eddie Kazak.

Kazak probably will remain out of action the rest of this week because of a sprained ankle suffered in the Brooklyn series.

Another reason for the club's spurt is left-handed Howard Follet's return to the field after two bad years during which Manager Eddie Dyer stuck with him despite criticism from the fans.

The Coca Cola juniors clipped an Arenzville 5-3 on the Cass county diamond last night.

Lair had charge of the mound chores for the Jacksonville nine all the way. C. Lovekamp pitched for Arenzville.

Cards Defeat Phillies In 9 To 5 Contest As Cubs Blank Bums 6-0

St. Louis, July 26—(P)—The Cardinals' bats were hot tonight as St. Louis drove to a game and a half lead in the National league race with a 9 to 5 triumph over the Philadelphia Phillies.

Harry Brecheen wasn't the pitching ace of old, but with the hard hitting of Stan Musial, Red Schoendienst, Enos Slaughter and Glenn Nelson behind him he didn't have to worry.

Brecheen allowed nine hits. Dick Sisler's first-inning homer with a man on base and Burdett Blatter's four-bagger in the ninth frame were the most serious blows off Harry.

Musial and Slaughter each hit two doubles. Nelson and Schoendienst hit one apiece. Chuck Diering came up with a triple but was caught off third.

The Phils held a two-run lead until the last of the third when Schoendienst opened with his double. Lou Klein singled and Musial scored both men with a two-bagger. Slaughter in turn sent Musial home with a single. Andy Seminick almost had Musial at the plate but dropped the ball as the Redbird outfielder barged past.

Ron Northey made the first out of the inning, then Nelson singled to score Slaughter and give the Cardinals a lead they never lost.

Altogether Slaughter and Musial had three hits out of four trips to the plate while Schoendienst went one better with four out of five. Nelson also hit safely three out of four official trips.

The Cardinal victory coupled with the Chicago Cubs' 6 to 0 victory over the Brooklyn Dodgers gave the Redbirds their game and a half lead—a working margin—as the two rivals approached a crucial series here next weekend.

Schmitz Hurls 7-Hitter
Chicago, July 26—(P)—Johnny Schmitz who specializes in beating Brooklyn, did it again today with a seven-hit, 6-0, victory for the last-place Chicago Cubs. It was the Dodger's fourth straight loss, a new season high.

Three first-inning runs off Joe Hatten were more than enough for Schmitz who has pitched each of Chicago's three wins in 13 meetings with Brooklyn.

Coming on the heels of the disastrous St. Louis series, the loss was a severe blow to the Dodgers' pennant hopes at the start of their third western trip.

Singles by Frank Gustine, Frank Baumholtz and Andy Pafko, a fly ball and Roy Smalley's double knocked Hatten in the first. He was rocked out in the third when, with two out, Pafko doubled and Smalley tripled.

Jack Banta and Carl Erskine finished up with Erskine yielding the final two runs in the eighth after two were out. Smalley's third hit, a single, Reich's single and Mickey Owen's double did the damage.

A fine weekday crowd of 32,872 saw the game.

Impish as ever, the reedy old sage refused to open any of his 50-odd congratulatory telegrams.

"He's just putting it off," explained his housekeeper, Mrs. Alice Laden.

The Rogerson Coal Co. and Amvet Junior softball teams racked up handy wins in league play at the Northside park last night.

The Rogerson youngsters chalked up their National league win by a 12-10 count over the Lane Book Store entry in the preliminary game.

Shrubbe, Amvet twirler, limited the Flamingo club batsmen to 5 meagre hits as his club annexed a 13-3 American League decision from the Flamingoes in the feature game.

Peoria—With 10 teams competing, the third annual softball tournament of the Veterans of Foreign Wars will be held at Caterpillar diamonds in East Peoria, Saturday and Sunday, July 30-31.

Trophies will be awarded to first, second and third place winners by State VFW Commander James R. Schmitz of Ottawa, at the conclusion of the tournament Sunday night. Cincinnati Whips Boston Braves 6-3

Cincinnati, July 26—(P)—The Cincinnati Reds pounced on Rookie Johnny Antonelli for four runs in the first two innings tonight and then went on to lick the Boston Braves, 6 to 3. Home runs by Sisti and Bob Elliott were the only damaging runs off Kent Peterson, after he had survived a shaky start.

Peterson, in winning his second game since being given a starting berth, walked Eddie Stanky and Elbie Fletcher as the first two men to face him and that led to the first Boston run with Stanky scoring on two fly balls to the outfield.

Peterson walked the same pair to open the third but got out of trouble that time and from there on had the Braves under control except for the circuit blows by Sisti and Elliott in the seventh and eighth respectively.

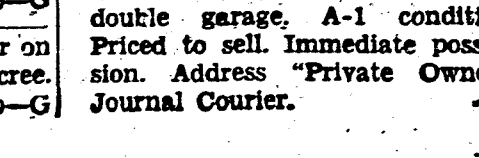

The Reds showed little respect for Antonelli's bonus reputation. Harry Walker, Peanut Lowrey and Danny Litwhiler opened the first with consecutive singles for one run and Lowrey scored later on a fly. A double by Lowrey and single by Litwhiler brought in two more runs in the second after walk by Claude Corbitt and a stolen base.

THE STORY: A wealthy widow, Mrs. Everson, who believes that an atomic war is impending which will end civilization and perhaps the world, has hired Mrs. Marchese, a former disgraced movie star, to act as a "place of safety." Also in the party are Rudy, a former disgraced movie star; Victor, an educated Filipino, and the Marchese's daughter, an exiled noblewoman. Mrs. Everson has twice been tempted to flee, but each time has been persuaded to stay. She herself has come to believe in the wisdom of catastrophe and this fear is heightened as Mrs. Everson becomes almost frantic at each delay. Then through Victor, Mrs. Marchese learns that Mrs. Everson is in love with Rudy, but Rudy wants only Mrs. Everson's money.

Then, for many hours, the trailers followed unfrequented roads. And Mrs. Everson, wearing a leopard skin coat, with a magenta handkerchief tied over her hair and under her chin, sat beside Rudy, giving directions.

"Where do you suppose we are?" Mrs. Marchese asked the Marchese. "This feels like New Mexico to me."

THE Marchese sent a careless and disinterested glance through the blue gauze curtains.

"I do not know," he said. "Mrs. Everson is guiding us to our destination."

He put the flute aside and with a gesture invited Mrs. Marchese to be seated.

"Oh, I couldn't, sir," she said pointedly.

"Sit down," he repeated. "Tell me about yourself."

She said there was nothing to tell, then surrendered to the understanding in his eyes and talked for an hour, mostly about Joe.

"We were so happy together. Always kidding each other. Never a cross word. We knew what we liked and we went after it, together. I suppose you'd laugh, if I told you the things we did. We didn't have any big ambitions. I mean we didn't want to make the headlines."

"All we cared about was enjoying life in our own way: bumbling around the country in an old car, camping out, talking to people we happened to meet, cooking our own food. But most of all we had to be free."

"Joe didn't like what's been happening in the world. You see, we were old enough to remember when it was a good place to live in. I mean, when nobody could tell you what to do or how to think. Joe hated the taxes and the controls, the credit bureaus and the time payments. He believed in individualism—said it made for character. But now, he said, Americans were getting stamped out like an issue of currency, all alike."

"He hated professional baseball and he hated swing music. He said it made criminals by beating on the nerves. Joe was a funny one. I don't suppose you ever saw Will Rogers? Joe was like him. While Joe was alive I was happy. We dodged modern life and hid inside our dreams. On rainy days we liked to watch the window panes streaming water while we were cozy inside, drinking coffee and reading the great old stories..."

"Malone," the Marchese interrupted. "Malone! Joe was a lucky man."

"I was lucky too, sir," Mrs. Marchese said quietly. "That is, until I lost Joe. Then I was the most unlucky person in the world."

"I said he was a lucky man," the Marchese repeated.

"Weren't you ever married, sir?" "Yes," he said.

A mist blurred his eyes. He fumbled on the sofa beside him for the flute.

"Yes. My wife died seven years ago, in a German prison camp. She was a political prisoner. After she died, I escaped."

He blinked and smiled.

"Strange—is it not, that violence has become such a commonplace? We find ourselves in an age of savage cruelty."

He broke off, lifted the flute to his lips and played a few notes. Then he paused and said:

"Did Joe ever tell you how pretty you are?"

"Yes, sir. But since he left I never look in the mirror any more."

"You should."

CECHS USE OLD RUSS ON REDS

Prague —P— Czechs trying to trick their present communist rulers are using an old ruse they employed on their former Nazi occupiers.

It's like the old gag of "grandmother died" that Americans use to get the afternoon off to attend the first game of the baseball season. The Czech version is "auntie has died—hurry home." During the German occupation such telegrams helped people on forced labor to get out of camp.

Now some fathers and mothers are sending such telegrams to their children who are on harvest brigades (volunteer workers) in the Prague region of the Czechoslovakia Youth Union.

More Cars Needed For Jacksonville Day' At St. Louis Ball Park

Twenty-eight local citizens have offered to furnish automobiles for the Jacksonville Junior Chamber of Commerce baseball trip to Sportsman's Park in St. Louis, Aug. 4. However, the need for more cars was stressed, in a report made last night to the Journal-Courier.

In order to accommodate the 175 boys and girls who have already registered and secured tickets to see the game between the St. Louis Cardinals and the Boston Braves, about 40 cars will be needed.

Announce Wedding Plans Of Quincy Girl, Local Man

The engagement and approaching marriage of Miss Betty Metzger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Arthur Metzger, 1820 Lind street, Quincy, Ill., to Louis R. Magner, son of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Magner, 329 E. College avenue, Jacksonville, was announced by Miss Metzger's parents at an informal party Sunday, July 24.

The wedding will take place Saturday morning, August 27, nine in St. Francis Church, Quincy. This information was revealed by a buffet arrangement consisting of a miniature bridal party approaching a replica of St. Francis Church. The clock on the steeple told the hour and a plaque revealed the date. The miniature attendants of the bride were gowned in peach and aqua, the color scheme to be carried out at the wedding.

Miss Rosetta Magner, sister of the bridegroom-to-be, of Jacksonville will be maid of honor, and Miss Elaine Damhorst of Quincy will be bridesmaid. Paul J. Magner of Jacksonville will attend his brother. Ushers will be Edgar Peltier of Quincy and Clarence Collingsworth of Teutopolis.

The bride-elect received her guests seated in a peach colored suit, dress, accented with a corsage of white carnations, the gift of her fiancé.

Bingo was enjoyed and prizes were awarded to Mrs. Robert Fisher, Mrs. James T. Magner and Mrs. Wilfred Wavering. Refreshments were served from a beautifully appointed table centered with a large bouquet of peach gladiolus and white lilies.

There were floral arrangements throughout the house.

Many friends of the bride attended the announcement party. Those from here in attendance were Mrs. James T. Magner, Miss Rose Magner, Mrs. Paul J. Magner and Miss Rosetta Magner.

Youth Struck By Lightning Takes Turn For Worse

Roodhouse—Bob Tennill, Roodhouse youth who was struck by a bolt of lightning during an electric storm Saturday afternoon, was rushed to the White Hall hospital Monday evening in a serious condition. Tennill, whose injuries were not at first believed to be of a serious nature, suffered a relapse while downtown in Roodhouse Monday evening.

He was taken to his home and examined by Dr. F. Earl Walker, who attended Tennill immediately after the bolt struck him while he was unloading hay on the Russell Hutton farm, south of Roodhouse, Saturday afternoon.

Tennill was taken in the Mackey ambulance to the White Hall hospital, where he was examined by Dr. Sickley. The youth was placed in an oxygen tent to ease his difficulty in breathing. Hospital authorities termed his condition critical Tuesday morning but reported that he was "coming along satisfactorily" late Tuesday night.

Since the accident, Tennill had complained of severe and almost continuous headaches. His right arm, where the bolt struck, remained stiff, to the extent of being partially paralyzed.

Tennill is the 19-year-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Jack Tennill.

ATER FAMILY REUNION
Nichols Park Sun. July 31

PICTURE PUZZLE—FIND THE PEOPLE

Though there were those who got downtown Tuesday morning, (witness the cars) there were few who chose the public square as a sun-bathing beach. Two reasons there are: One, Jacksonville public square is not a bathing beach, and two, its just too hot on the square.

At any rate, this picture shows, better than can be said, that the stores on the square have better drawing power than the hot, hot sidewalks. The current song hit, "Baby its Cold Outside," was not written in central Illinois.

This picture was snapped from the top of Farmers Bank Building by Jack Hackett, staff photographer, and shows the southeast section of the square and buildings on South Main. The long flat building in the upper right hand corner, barely visible, is Franklin school.

What It Means: The Insurance Dividend

By ROWLAND EVANS, JR.

Washington—A tremendous outpouring of dollars will sweep the pockets of 16,000,000 World War II veterans early next year.

The dollars will come from a $2,800,000,000 dividend kitty, built up in the National Service Life Insurance (NSLI) fund over the past nine years.

The "special dividend" checks will roll out from Washington to the four corners of the globe—wherever veterans are—starting in January. They will reach a rate of 200,000 a day, five days a week.
